DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "gateway of a first party being connected to a second party via a VoIP connection" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1-5 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Regarding claims 1-4 line 1, the term "Gateway" should be rewritten as ---A gateway---. The same is true for "Computer Program" in claim 5.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 1, 2, and 5, the scope of the claim is not clearly defined since it is not clear whether open or closed claims are intended. A claim should include transitional phrases, such as "comprising," "consisting essentially of," or "consisting of," to define the scope of a claim with respect to what unrecited additional components, or steps, if any, are excluded from the scope of the claim. See MPEP § 2111.03.

Regarding claims 1-2 line 1 and 3-4 line 2, the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claims 3 and 4 recites the limitation "the gateway" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim because there are two gateways recited in claim 1, "Gateway" in claim 1 line 1 and "a second gateway" in claim 1 line 5.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

6. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding claim 5, the claim is directed to a computer program per se, which is non-functional descriptive material, since it is not functional it cannot carry out the claimed invention, therefore is not statutory subject matter. It is suggested that the applicant rewrite claim 5 in terms of "a computer readable medium, stored with, embodied with, or encoded with a computer program or computer executable instructions."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 1 and 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by El-Maleh et al. (US 6,782,361).

Regarding claims 1 and 5, El-Maleh et al. disclose a gateway being configured to detect background noise (see column 4 lines 41-48) of a first party (see Fig 1 reference numeral 10) being connected to a second party (see Fig 1 reference numeral 12) via a VoIP connection (see column 1 lines 15-20) in at least two different frequency ranges (see column 3 lines 13-15, 24-25 and column 4 lines 58-67, the line spectral frequencies is used to classify background noise), to encode the noise in each frequency range into a noise parameter (see column 5 lines 7-11, LPC spectral parameters) and to send the encoded noise parameters to a second gateway via the VoIP connection (see column 5 lines 13-15, the noise class index is transmitted to the decoder via the communication channel of VoIP communications); regarding claim 3, the gateway is being configured to perform voice activity detection (see column 4 lines 41-48);

regarding claim 4, the gateway is being configured to decode received noise parameters and to generate corresponding data packets (see column 5 lines 16-33).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

10. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

11. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over El-Maleh et al.

Regarding claim 2, El-Maleh et al. disclose all the subject matter of the claimed invention except the VoATM connection. However, it is well known in the art to implement a VoATM connection instead of VoIP connection.

Thus, it would have been obvious to the person of ordinary skill in the art to implement a VoATM connection into the voice transmission system of El-Maleh et al.

The motivation for implementing a VoATM connection is that it provides a more reliable voice transmission system.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gao et al. (US 6,961,698) and LeBlanc et al. (US 6,980,528) are cited to show systems considered pertinent to the claimed invention.
